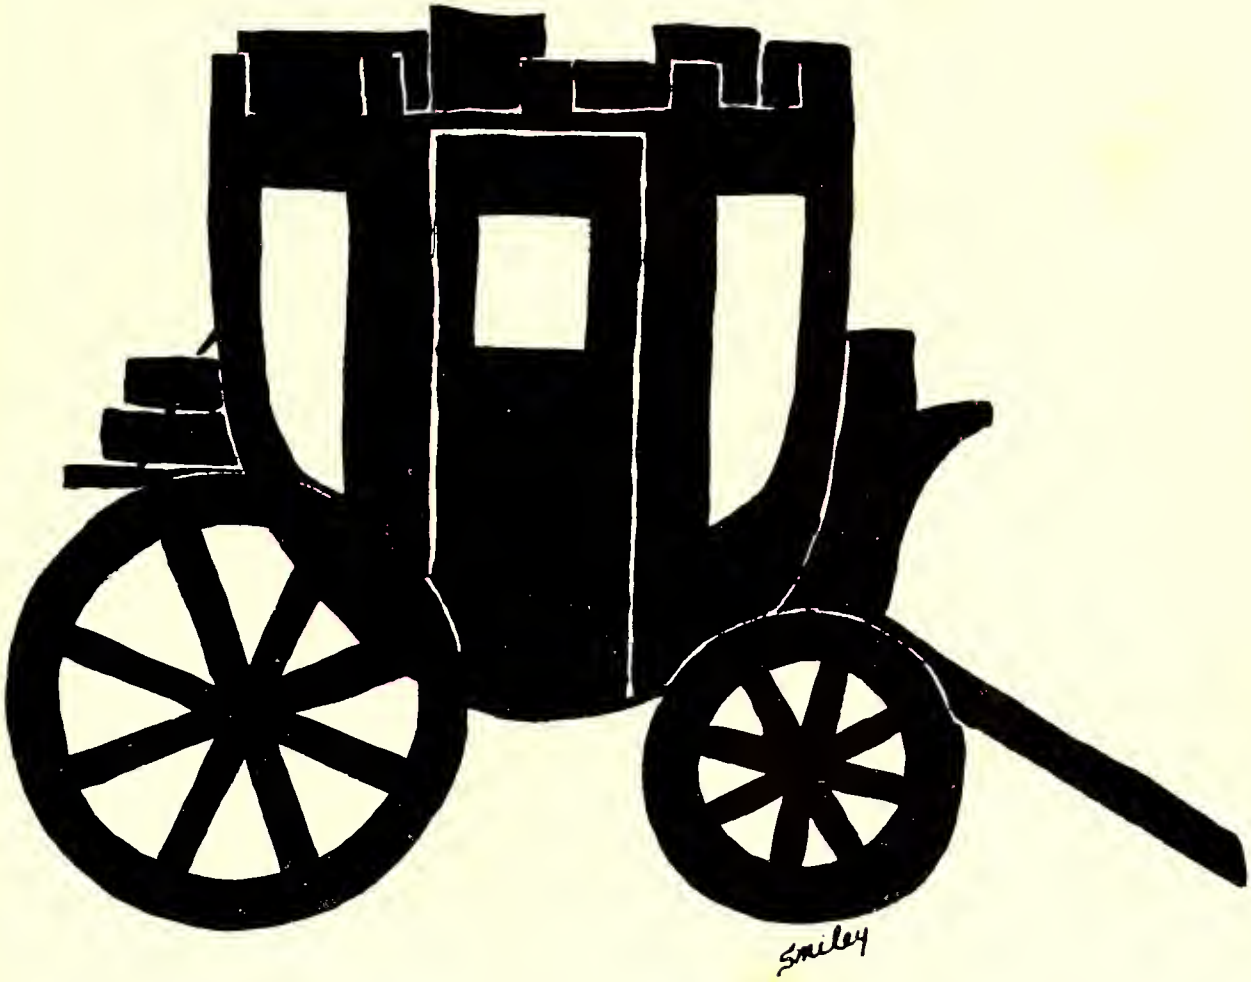
Welcome Aboard The 1956 Stagecoach



St. Mary's Junior College Library

Foreword

Climb aboard the 1956 Stage Coach and travel through the record of a year at St. Mary's. The Stage Coach Staff happily gives you these souvenirs of the year's activities. In turn we hope that you will remember the thought behind these activities. Above all, we want this annual to represent more than a brief journey through the school year; we want it to symbolize the lifelong spirit which St. Mary's imparts.

Dedicated to

Miss Mabel Margaret Morrison

who, because of her understanding, sympathy, and interest in the problems and activities of us all, has won the love and appreciation of the student body.

'56 Progress of the Old Stagecoach

A Doggeral in Modified Spenserian Stanza for the Editors—, Smiley and Nancy

From September to Thanksgiving

WE OILED UP THE WHEELS
AND MOUNTED ALOFT.
WE LARRUPED THE HOSSES
THROUGH MUD SORT 'A SOFT.

From Thanksgiving to Christmas

THEN WHEELS HIT THE CONCRETE
AND SANG LIKE TARNATION;
AND ROLLED US ALONG
SMACK INTO VACATION.

VACATION THEN OVER,
WE TIGHTENED EACH HUB,
AND ROLLED US AWAY
TO OUR OLD COUNTRY CLUB.

From Christmas to Easter

AND ROLLED ON AGAIN
AMID LAUGHTER AND SQUEALS
'TIL BUMPS OF EXAMS
THREW US UNDER THE WHEELS.

WE BRUSHED OFF THE E'S,
AND GRABBED AT THE A'S,
AND HEADED THE CHARIOT
FOR COMMENCEMENT DAYS.

From Easter to June

WITH THE GOAL WELL IN SIGHT
WE RACED WITH THE WIND, AND HOWLED TO EACH OTHER,
"HOLD ON. HERE'S THE END."

After the handkerchief's dropped

NOW THE OLD EQUIPAGE
IS DRAWN UP TO THE DOOR.
BOARD HER. GET IN.
THERE'S FUN HERE GALORE.

FORGET ALL THE WORK;
REMEMBER THE FUN.
HOLD TIGHT TO THE SPIRIT;
YOU'VE A RACE YET TO RUN.

ALL YE SAINTS AND YE SINNERS,
IS EVERYONE HERE?
WE'LL HEAD TO THE FUTURE
WITH NARRY A FEAR.

RICHARD G. STONE
President

A.B., Western Maryland College; Ph.D., The Johns Hopkins University; L.H.D., Western Maryland College. St. Mary's, 1946—.

A perennial passenger on the STAGE COACH, Dr. Stone is truly a symbol of St. Mary's. His sincerity and stability have gained our earnest respect. His wisdom and ability have helped guide both school and students.

Our New Dean

EDITH ANNE RICHARDSON

Dean

This year we welcomed aboard the STAGE COACH a lady who has in a short year become a meaningful part of the life at St. Mary's. She has already won our sincere affection through her sweetness, her generosity, and her understanding.

February 10, 1956.

Dear Class of 1956:

You have asked me to write a letter for your STAGE COACH and I am happy to take this opportunity to thank you for all your kindnesses of the past year. It was inevitably a time of mutual adjustments as you grew accustomed to me and I gradually became familiar with your policies and traditions. You have continually assisted me in so many ways and have shown such unusual understanding for the stranger within your gates, that I feel confident that each member of the Class of 1956 will carry with her from St. Mary's this ability to welcome strangers. To me it is a St. Mary's tradition well-worthy of perpetuation.

My best wishes for all the days ahead.

Loyally yours,
EDITH A. RICHARDSON.

ISRAEL HARDING HUGHES

Chaplain

No matter where we go from here, we will never forget the kindly Chaplain who has traveled with us on our journey through St. Mary's. He has given us continuous inspiration and cheer through the goodness of his words and the warmth of his personality.

I, Peggy Smithdeal, leave my lesser ambition to pursue higher goals.

I, Emily Somers, leave my placidity to Caroline Cobb.

I, Molly Spruill, leave my various hair dyes and rinses to Margaret Louise Hamilton.

I, Sue Stevens, leave my history book still open.

I, Patti Stringfellow, leave to set the world on fire.

I, Pat Sullivan, leave the Democratic Party as it has served its purpose.

I, Kathy Theobald, leave my coaching ability to any tutor who could do as well as I.

I, Elizabeth Thompson, leave my charming ways to Carol Biggers.

The noise of Suzanne Towe leaves.

I, Helen Walker, leave my carton of milk to the stray cats.

I, Ginger Walser, leave third East Wing for the first time this year.

The clothes of Sue Warburton leave with her. Alas!

I, Ruth Watkins, leave a glass of an unknown liquid to Marianna.

I, Katherine Webb, sadly leave Miss S. E. Jones.

I, Jane Westbrook, should be ready to leave the first of July.

I, Martha Williford, leave my bun to Miss Morrison.

I, Carolyn Wise, leave one in every port.

I, Betsy Wright, leave my hidden talents to Serena Hendrix.

I, Mary Brooks Yarborough, leave my thousand questions still unanswered.

We, the Testators, regret that Ellen Clarkson was unable to stop talking long enough to requeath anything.

We, the Testators, Richardson and Proctor, leave to venture timidly once again into what lies beyond these hallowed walls.

We, the Testators, Richardson and Proctor, representing the Senior Class, do hereby appoint Miss Makel Margaret Morrison and Dr. Richard Gabriel Stone as administrators of this our Last Will and Testament and instruct the above mentioned to carry out the same.

Prophecy

Each of us holds deep in her heart
A hidden, suppressed desire.
Now, few of these all satisfied,
Few set the world on fire!
But girls, we're from St. Mary's
And that should hold enough.
Look forward, dear, and never say die;
Be honest and show your stuff.

Some of these hidden desires were overheard in various conversations:

Smiley Hubard wants to play "toesy with Joesy" the rest of her life.

Martha Brooks is looking forward to the day that she is sole owner of a sixty-eight foot pencil.

Nancy Carpenter is dying to break a date and elope.

Catherine Brown and Margaret Brunson are going to be joint house-mothers for the Kappa Sigs.

Helen Mason and Nancy Llewellyn are the future welcoming committee at Cooper's for delinquent Belles.

Mary House wants a cozy bed of roses so Caronne will always have an abundant supply foi Sundays.

Julia Hamme, Becky Hinkle, Mary Ann Hofler, and Sue Stevens hope to graduate to a big "Big Store."

Debbie Conner, like most plumbers, desires a friend.

Ann Morton's one goal is to marry Eric and live where she will be surrounded by two little mountains, a tree.

Dolly Ricks' suppressed desire is to awake one morning and say, "Good morning, Mr. Dove."

Mary Parke Jones' secret desire is to be desired.

Martha Williford's goal is someone like Peggy's "Tiny."

Sue Jett, after Christmas, is the perpetual debutante.

Nancy Graham, Patsy Miller, and Mary Proctor are preparing to weigh in for the one hundred pound class in the Ladies' Wrestling championship.

Betty Mixon wishes Margaret Sherrod would finesse her suppressed desires and return her roommate.

Elizabeth Thompson and Ann Ruffin love "Pepsi-cola tops"— better known as Zete pins.

Carolyn Wise's suppressed desire is to be able to giggle and wiggle with "less" comment.

Coles Cathcart desires legs like Mrs. Harry James.

Laura James Bettes wants to live up to the name of "Big Bubbles Bettes."

Pat Sullivan suppresses no desires!

Nancy Crow dreams she is a "merry widow" in her merry widow.

Sumner Parham, as editor of Play Boy magazine, is featuring Carolyn Foy as playmate of the month.

Beth Kemper still loves Wheaties—"What sparks a champion sparks you!"

Joan Schiltz, and Ginny Dawson, the KA ladies, are destined to have KA babies.

Tonya Gamble achieved her life's ambition. She is married to Tifiny and is sole owner of the Hopeless diamond.

Ann Dorris', Barbara Doar's, Kathleen Hartsock's, Lemma Baucom's, Ellen Johnson's, and Kathryn Webb's idea of a perfect set-up is having their own separate lunch room.

Ellen Clarkson and Ann Bachman are now Siamese twins.

Kathy Theobald is a well-known librarian with six little readers of her own.

Ann Murphrey and Pearla Ann Revelle are now presidents of their brothers' fan clubs.

Carol Oates, Joan Culbreth and Louise Howell are finally in complete command of the forces at Fort Bragg.

Glenn Norman is competition for the Globe Trotters.

Smitty, Anne Elliott, and Val McMillan are starring in Broadway's new play, Three Dumb Men, in contrast to the roles they played at St. Mary's.

Marianna Miller and Susan Potman are head of the biggest eye lash and brow company in the United States.

Betty Ivey is still trying to disassociate herself from that nice Betty Ivey of Durham and Chapel Hill.

Mollie Spruill's, Flora McIver's, Alice Clarke's, and Ruth Watkins' suppressed desires are to be the III's and have many little IV's.

Hunt Proctor, Liz Oden, and Peggy Carter have succeeded in moving the White House to Little Washington.

Patti Stringfellow is now head of the English Department at the University of South Carolina.

Betsy Wright is finally not only state-wide but also nationally known as Madame Butterfly.

Mary Louise Bizzell is now writing Dorothy Dix's column and answering the questions of Helen Walker and Susan Donald.

Jane Westbrook has set an all-time record for never being on time—even the bridegroom had to wait.

Clare Patton has at last gained the results of her charming smile—she is "Miss Ipana."

Pat Satterfield and Frances Allen are known around the world as Florence Davis' best nasal students.

In the late Broadway production of the Faerie Queene, Mary Brooks Yarborough reached stardom as the Red Cross Knight. Ginger Walser appeared as Lust.

Alice Lancaster and Ginia Richardson, inspired by their last year at St. Mary's, are now welcoming new girls as co-hostesses in St. Mary's parlor.

Dianitia Hutcheson is bringing many children pleasure since she has become the second Road-Runner.

Mott Butler has become an experienced golfer.

Jean Faulkner and Ina Gee Ridley are co-editors of a new, informal magazine for frustrated St. Mary's girls—Bitty Bad Words.

Fairfax Crow is now Mrs. Buzzie Buzzard and she's still panting.

Nancy Adams, Peggy Smithdeal, Patsy Moore, and Bunny Gee desire one more trinket for their left hands. Guess those wedding bells are breaking up that old gang of mine.
